

THE GARDEN IN YOU

THE FIRST STEP TO DESIGN
YOUR DREAM GARDEN

GERAL OVERBEEK

Book

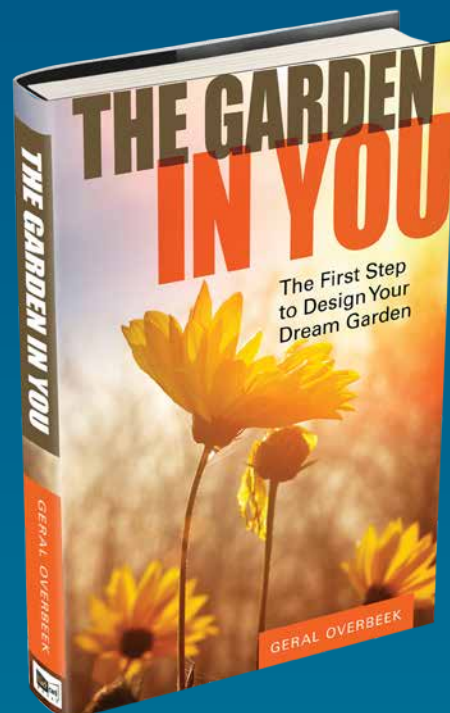

“A garden is only successful if it completely suits the house, its environment and its users.”

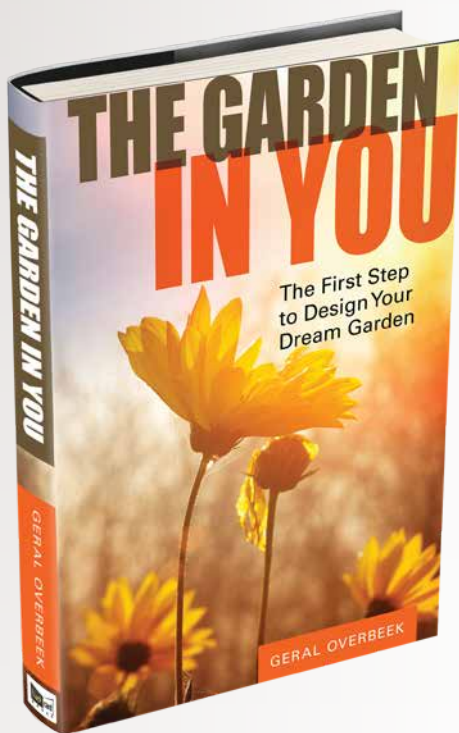

Geral Overbeek

Description

- What is a garden and why is a garden so important for you?
- Creation of the garden in the past can be an inspiration for a new garden.
- An atmosphere that brings a garden to life and feels like a glove that fits on your hand.
- An erotic garden atmosphere gets your senses on the move.
- Give your garden the right shape that fits to your house and create the space you like.
- Why your garden feels good and what plants have to do with it.
- Materials that make your garden sustainable and gives you the right look and feel.
- Less is more in the garden; create the space and not the things.
- Water brings the garden to life, like a mirror from a pond to a splashing waterfall.
- Animals bring joy to your garden. How can you make your garden animal friendly?

“Anyone can discover the garden he really wants with the right tools. Let me show you step-by-step how to find your dream garden.”

Geral Overbeek

A garden needs to be in balance and feel like an organic part of yourself. It's not about the things, it's about designing spaces. It's a journey to find the garden you really want and I'm here to help you to find your dream garden.

The Author

Geral Overbeek is a Garden Designer and business man who specializes in natural gardens with a modern touch that supports the garden enthusiast.

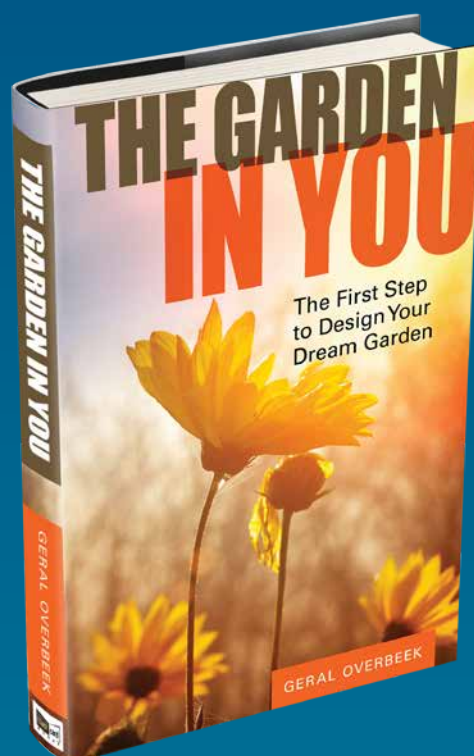

After graduating as a Garden Designer in 1983, he began working in the garden business and continued further education in garden design and maintenance.

In 1989 he started his own business (Overbeek-Gardendesign) in the green heart of the Netherlands to make garden designs from rooftop gardens to landscape. Geral has designed a method to extract your deeper garden dreams and design a garden you never knew before through an exclusive garden design.

In addition to working directly with the garden owner, Geral teaches them how they can design their own garden and how to choose the right plants through his practical workshops.

One of his specialties is to design sustainable and durable gardens that naturally flow over into the landscape.

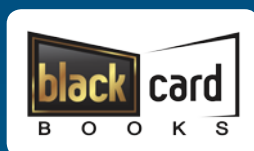

Geral shares more than 25 years of experience in gardens and provides garden enthusiasts the opportunities to learn about and enjoy every season of their dream garden.
